Behold! there shall be a day, when the watchman upon the mountain top shall cry aloud:
"Arise ye! Get ye up unto Mount Zion, unto the Lord your God!"
For thus saith the Lord: Fear not now, O Israel, neither be thou dismayed.
Refrain thine voice from weeping and thine eyes from tears;
For I, the Lord, am with thee, and will save thee.
I have loved thee with everlasting love, and have redeemed thee.
Why criest thou in thine affliction? Why mournest thou in nightly watches?
I have redeemed thee. Therefore thus saith the Lord: Sing ye aloud with gladness!
Thy mourning is turned into joy! I, even I, have redeemed thee.
Be glad and rejoice! Thy sorrows now are ended, great shall be thy peace.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

The Congregation will remain standing and join with the Choir in singing the last stanza of America.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty, To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

Joyful, joyful, we adore Thee, God of glory, God of love;
Hearts unfold like flow'rs before Thee Praising Thee their sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; Drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, Fill us with the light of day.
All Thy works with joy surround Thee. Earth and heav'ns reflect Thy rays,
Stars and angels sing around Thee, Centre of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Blooming meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, Call us to rejoice in Thee.
Thou art giving and forgiving, Ever blessing, ever blest,
Wellspring of the joy of loving, Ocean depth of happy rest!
Thou our Father, Christ our Brother, All who live in love are Thine;
Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the joy divine.
Mortals join the mighty chorus, Which the morning stars began,
Father love is reigning o'er us, Brother love binds man to man.
Ever singing march we onward, Victors in the midst of strife;
Joyful music lifts us sunward In the triumph song of life.

Only-begotten Word of God eternal, Lord of creation,
Merciful and mighty, List to thy servants, when their tuneful voices
Raise to thy presence, Lord, we beseech thee, as we throng thy temple,
By thy past blessings, by thy present bounty, Smile on thy children,
And with tender mercy, Hear our petitions,
God in Three Persons, Father everlasting, Son, coeternal,
Ever blessed Spirit, Thine be the glory, praise and adoration,
Now and forever.

MILDRED L. HENDRIX TO GIVE ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix will present an organ recital Sunday afternoon, June 3, at 4:30 o'clock in the University Chapel. Her program follows:

Johann Sebastian Bach — Pastorale in F

In this short piece we have a charming, lyrical work probably written during a later period of Bach's life. Harvey Grace says that it is not part of a suite, although often grouped as such, because the numbers are in different keys—a method not used for suites in Bach's day.

Johann Sebastian Bach — Toccata and Fugue in D Minor

In contrast with the Pastorale is the Toccata and Fugue which Pirro has called Bach's classical storm. Many of the great composers liked to depict bad weather and Bach, who went traveling through Europe with this brilliant concert piece in his pocket, was no exception. The lightning, thunder, wind and hail, all are heard here.

It is interesting to note how carefully Bach has tied the lively toccata to the fugue, forming contrasting parts, yet returning several times to the mood of his opening bars and ending in the same spirit with which he opened it.

George Frederic Händel — Suite from Water Music
I Allegro Vivace
II Air
VI Allegro Maestoso

This suite of pieces was composed for an aquatic fête given by the Elector of Hanover in 1712. Händel had lost favor with the Elector prior to this composition. It not only restored him to favor, but was such a great success that it brought him an annuity of two hundred pounds. Carl McKinley has arranged this orchestral work for organ.

Viteslav Novák — In the Church

As we hear the distant chimes and the chanting of the monks, we imagine ourselves in a small old-world church. Reverence is found here and quiet meditation.

Viteslav Novák was born in Bohemia in 1870. He became rector and professor of composition at Prague Conservatory upon its reorganization by the Republic. He has composed many works.

Louis Vierne — Divertissemente

This little scherzo in modern mood and color is found in "24 pieces written in free style." Vierne was the blind organist of Notre Dame from 1930 until his death in 1937. Few organists have been more admired by their fellow musicians.

Alexandre T. Gretchaninoff — Cradle Song

The Cradle Song, transcribed by Gottfried Federlein, is well suited to the plaintive oboe as used in solo here. The song's simplicity is its special appeal.

Gretchaninoff, born in 1864, was a pupil of Rimski-Korsakov. He has given us many beautiful anthems inspired by the Russian orthodox church.

Charles Marie Widor — Toccata from the Fifth Symphony

Nothing new can be added by way of comment on this ever popular toccata. Many organ composers have written toccatas, but few have found the exciting formula which makes this a pièce de resistance. Widor begins with a dancing melody on the manuals. Before this becomes monotonous, he brings in an inspired progression wtih the pedals which grows into a tremendous climax simultaneously with the keyboard theme.

ROBERT REUTER TO GIVE ORGAN RECITAL SUNDAY, JUNE 10

Robert Reuter, Dean of Music at Flora Macdonald College, Red Springs, N. C., will present an organ recital Sunday afternoon, June 10, at 4:30 o'clock in the University Chapel. The program follows:

Sigfried Karg-Elert — Kyrie eleison

Karg-Elert wrote a set of six pieces on Gregorian Tunes and entitled them "Cathedral Windows." The tune which he used for this first piece in the set is divided into three brief phrases. Karg-Elert has succeeded in impressing upon the listener the serious dignity and devotional atmosphere which the text of the chant conveys, "God, have mercy! Christ, have mercy! God, have mercy!"

Johann Sebastian Bach — Fantasie and Fugue in G Minor

The Fantasie consists mainly of broad, majestic recitatives. The Fugue is bright, joyous and very spontaneous. Its subject is one of the most attractive ever devised, and the listener finds himself compelled to follow with eager interest the development of the theme.

François Couperin — Soeur Monique

This quaint little rondeau was written for the harpsichord and was published in 1722 in the third volume of pieces for that instrument. The strings on the harpsichord were twanged by quills attached to upright jacks found between the strings. The tone resembled that of the harp or zither. Many trills and turns were employed in order to effect a more sustaining quality.

George Frederick Handel — Harpsichord Suite in G Minor
I Allegro
II Largo
III Allegro giocoso

Handel's joyous optimism is clearly revealed in this set of three short, delightful movements, arranged for organ by Dr. Robert Bedell.

Julius Reubke — Sonata: The Ninety-Fourth Psalm

How directly and powerfully the text of the Ninety-Fourth Psalm is here illustrated! "O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth, show Thyself. Arise, Thou judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud. . . . The Lord is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge. . . ." Reuhke, a pupil of Liszt, died in 1858 at the age of 24. This Sonata is based on a single theme, and the movements proceed without interruption.

Jean Sibelius — Melody for the Bells of Berghäll Church

In a note accompanying the composition, the following information is given concerning this work: The suburb of Berghäll lies to the north of the charming capital, Helsingfors, and the church recently erected there dominates the Park of Tölö and the landlocked bay which washes its margins. When the church was completed and a carillon placed in the tower, Sibelius was invited to compose a melody in the genuine national vein, that the inhabitants of the district might be constantly reminded of their heritage of song. Sitting one evening in the dusk of the belfry, Sibelius wrote the little homely tune, so calm and strong, with its characteristic fourths and fifths, that is ideally Finnish in sentiment.

Louis Vierne — Westminster Carillon

The tower chimes of Westminster Abbey strike a theme on the hour which has given them world-wide interest. The theme consists of four phrases of four notes each. It is used as the basis of this composition.

Prayer and Choral Response

Anthem—"Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence" Gustav Holst

Soloists: Mrs. Morton Schoenfeld and Mr. Aldrich Northup

Let all mortal flesh keep silence, and with fear and trembling stand;
Ponder nothing earthly minded for with blessing in his hand,
Christ our Lord to earth descendeth our full homage to demand.
King of Kings, yet born of Mary, as of old on earth He stood,
Lord of Lords, in human vesture in the Body and the Blood
He will give to all the faithful His own Self for heavenly food.
Rank on rank the host of heaven spreads its vanguard on the way
As the light of light descendeth from the realms of endless day
That the pow'rs of hell may vanish as the darkness clears away.
At His feet the six-winged seraph; Cherubim with sleepless eye,
Veil their faces to the Presence, as with ceaseless voice they cry,
Alleluya, Lord most High. Amen.

Scripture

Hymn—"This Is My Father's World" (Terra Beata) Arr. by Franklin L. Sheppard

Offertory—"Hear My Prayer" Will James

Hear my pray'r, Oh Lord, turn not away, hearken unto the voice of my supplication,
Thou art my God, hide thy face not from me, teach me to do thy will
For I am thy servant, oh lift up my soul, and deliver me.
Turn not away, oh Father, Hear my pray'r, oh Lord.

And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.
There shall be no more curse, nor pain, nor death.
But the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be therein;
And his servants shall serve Him and they shall see His face.
There shall be no night there; And they need no lamp, nor light of the sun,
For the Lord God shall give them light; and they shall reign for ever.

And no man could learn that song, but they which were redeemed.
I heard the voice of harpers, touch their harps of golden wires.

Call to Worship—"Recessional" Reginald De Koven

Soloist: Mrs. Eugene Umstead

God of our fathers, known of old, Lord of our farflung battle line,
Beneath whose awful Hand we hold Dominion over palm and pine;
The tumult and shouting dies, The Captains and the Kings depart,
Still stands thine ancient sacrifice, An humble and a contrite heart,
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet, lest we forget!
For heathen heart that puts her trust In reeking tube and iron shard
All valiant dust that builds on dust, And guarding calls not Thee to guard,
For frantic boast and foolish word. Thy mercy on Thy people, Lord! Amen.

Rudyard Kipling.

Hymn—"God of Our Fathers" (National Hymn) George W. Warren

Prayer and Choral Response

Anthem—"Worship" Geoffrey Shaw

O brother man! fold to thy heart thy brother; Where pity dwells, the peace of God is there;
To worship rightly is to love each other; Each smile a hymn, each kindly deed a prayer.
Follow with reverent steps the great example Of Him whose holy work was "doing good";
So shall the wide earth seem our Father's temple, Each loving life a psalm of gratitude.
Then shall all shackles fall; the stormy clangour Of wild war music o'er the earth shall cease;
Love shall tread out the baleful fire of anger, And in its ashes plant the tree of peace!

John Greenleaf Whittier.

Scripture

Hymn—"Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life" (Germany) From William Gardiner's Sacred Melodies

Offertory Solo—"The Lord Is My Light" Frederick Allitsen

Sermon—"The Genius of Christianity"

Dr. J. Kenneth Pfohl
Bishop, The Moravian Church, Winston-Salem, N. C.

Choral Meditation—"A Prayer for Peace" Alfred H. Johnson

Soloist: Miss Evelyn Barnes

For peace, to Thee, O God, we pray, Disperse the battle's wild array;
Beneath the blessing of Thy hand, May we as men and brothers stand.
In peace, O may we understand The glorious Earth as one great land,
With Thee as Ruler, and, dear Lord, Eternal Truth the only sword!
For peace, to Thee, O God, we pray. Amen.

Benediction

Choral Response—"Threefold Amen" Danish

Organ—Allegro from Symphony VI Widor

ROBERT REUTER TO GIVE ORGAN RECITAL

Robert Reuter, organist for the Summer Session, will present an organ recital in the University Chapel Sunday afternoon, July 15, at 4:30 o'clock. Following is the program:

Henry Purcell — Trumpet Tune

Purcell is unquestionably England's greatest contribution to the realm of distinguished composers. He lived at a time (1658-1695) when he could exert a profound influence during the period of the restoration of church music following the Puritan domination. Handel was unmistakably influenced by Purcell, and one can easily detect a similarity in style in the work of the two great English composers.

Johann Sebastian Bach — Prelude and Fugue in A minor

This is one of the noblest examples of contrapuntal writing. The Prelude is much like a toccata. The Fugue has a most appealing subject, one which has helped to make this composition one of the most popular in organ literature.

Johann Sebastian Bach — Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring

Bach wrote this chorale as a movement from the Cantata No. 147. It was originally sung by a choir with a background of a small orchestra.

César Franck — Piéce Heroique

Though Belgian by birth, César Franck must be regarded as French by education and influence. The Piéce Heroique was written for the dedication of the organ in the Trocadero in Paris, 1878. It is replete with broad, direct, objective sweeps. An energetic opening leads into a lovely melodic portion, which is followed by a grand, militaristic movement at the close.

D. Nowakowski — Prayer

Dr. Clarence Dickinson, American composer and organ virtuoso, made this adaptation for the organ of an ancient Hebrew melody.

Theodor Bubeck — Fantasia in F sharp minor

Theodor Bubeck is a comparatively unknown Russian musician. The effective Fantasia is written in characteristic free style. It opens with a grave recitative in the pedals.

Anton Dvorák — Songs My Mother Taught Me

Dvorák, Bohemian composer, became famous for his captivating Slavic dances for orchestra. The strong Bohemian savor in these pieces is felt in almost all of his instrumental music as well as in his songs. He had a wonderful gift for melody, as exemplified in the popular gipsy song played here.

Louis Vierne — Carillon

This Carillon is from a collection of twenty-four pieces in free style, written for the organ or harmonium. The theme of the Carillon of the Chapel of the Chateau de Longpont, Aisne, is heard insistently in the pedals, the manuals offering a background, broad and discordant.

CARILLON RECITAL

Anton Brees, University Carillonneur, will give a recital Sunday afternoon, July 15, at 3:30 o'clock. Following is the program:

America

1. (a) 't Vergeet my niet — Flemish Song
   (b) The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise — E. Seitz
   (c) La Cumparsita — South-American Song
2. Serenade — J. Heykens
3. (a) God Will Take Care of You — W. S. Martin
   (b) The Church's One Foundation — S. S. Wesley
   (c) In the Garden — C. A. Miles
4. Request Number
5. Le Cygne — Saint-Saëns

Come to mine aid, O Lord. Haste Thee, Lord, haste to help me.
Hear my cry, hear my cry, Save me, Lord, in Thy mercy
Hear my cry, hear my cry come and save me, O Lord.

Voice of Mankind, sing over land and sea! The long night is gone from Calvary
The cross, the thong, the thorn; The sealed tomb yields up its saintly guest,
No longer to be burdened and oppressed. Heart of Mankind, thrill answer to His own!
So human, yet divine! For earthly love He left His heav'nly throne
For love like thine and mine For love of us, as one might kiss a bride.
His lifted lips touched death's, all satisfied. Soul of Mankind,
He wakes—He lives once more! Oh Soul, with heart and voice Sing!
The stone rolls slowly from the door! Our Lord stands forth. Rejoice!
O gardenland of song and flow'rs; Our King returns to us, forever ours!

God of the Sea, Majestic, vast, profound, Enlarge my bound, Broader and deeper let me be. Amen.

ORGAN RECITAL

Sunday afternoon, August 12, at 4:30 o'clock, Robert Reuter, organist during the Summer Session, will present a recital in the University Chapel. His program will be as follows:

Max Reger — Introduction and Passacaglia in D minor

Reger was one of the most scholarly of modern composers. One can appreciate the real and profound beauty in his work if one is willing to listen to his music and to study it. A passacaglia was originally a dance in triple time, based on a theme constantly repeated in the pedals.

Max Reger — Benedictus

One of the chief characteristics of Reger's music is a spiritual quality so beautifully expressed in this lovely "Benedictus."

Jaromir Weinberger — Bible Poems

1. Abide with Us: For It Is Toward Evening, and the Day Is Far Spent.
2. Lord Jesus Walking on the Sea.
3. Hosanna.
4. The Last Supper.
5. Hear, O Israel (Old Hebrew Choral).

Mr. Weinberger says of these "Poems": The Preludes "were inspired by the New Testament and in them I have attempted to give symbolic expression to the Biblical quotations. No theological sense whatsoever is intended."

Paul Reuter — Sarabande

A sarabande is a stately, dignified dance in triple time. This was written for the piano and transcribed by the organist. Paul Reuter is a prominent Nebraska pianist, teacher and composer.

Joseph Marie Dévdar de Sévérac — Menuet Antique

de Sévérac, French pianist and composer, was a pupil of D'Indy. This delightful "Menuet" was transcribed for organ by Bedell.

Marco Enrico Bossi — Scherzo in G minor

Bossi was one of the finest organists and composers Italy has produced. His technique for composition and performance was tremendous. He modelled much of his work after the old classic composers.

Marcel Dupré — Cortege and Litany

Dupré is the eminent organist and composer of France. One is reminded here of the solemn procession in the cathedral and one hears the repetition of short verses of the liturgy chanted responsively by the clergy.

Max Reger — Toccata

Reger's compositions have called forth an enthusiasm and devotion from most serious musicians. The Toccata is from Opus 59. It is replete in virile running passages and magnificent, characteristic Reger chords.

Let the nations know themselves to be but men.
For they that know thy name will put their trust in thee.

Offertory Anthem—"What of the Night?" R. G. Thompson

Soloist: Mrs. Eugene Umstead

What of the night, O watchman? Turn to the East thine eyes.
And say is there any token Of the dawning in the skies?
Or do the shadows linger, Thy lips, are they sad and dumb,
With never a word of gladness That the tarrying morn is come?
Then answer'd the patient watchman From the mountain's lonely height,
To the waiting souls in the valley, I can see the breaking light;
There's a glow on the far horizon That is growing more wide and clear,
And soon shall the sun be flinging His splendours both far and near.
What of the night, O Watchman? Rises to Thee our cry;
Prophet divine of Naz'reth, Make to our hearts reply:
Over the earth's wild warfare Comes not a time more fair,
Swords into ploughshares beaten, Peace throned ev'rywhere?
Wait, said the Heav'nly Watchman, Let not thy spirit quail,
Strife shall not be eternal, Harmony shall prevail;
Battle clouds all shall scatter, Hatred shall be outcast,
Love's ever broad'ning glory Break on the world at last!

ROBERT REUTER TO PRESENT ORGAN RECITAL

Robert Reuter, Organist for the Summer Session, will give an organ recital Sunday afternoon, August 26, at 4:30 o'clock in the University Chapel.

Following is the program:

Dietrich Buxtehude — Prelude and Fugue in G minor (XIV)

Much of the great music for the organ came from the pen of Buxtehude, who was organist of St. Mary's Church, Lubeck. His preludes and fugues are brilliant and powerful in their conception. Buxtehude was truly the greatest organist and composer of his time.

Johann Sebastian Bach — Air for the G String

This tune is unquestionably one of the loveliest and best-loved melodies which Bach wrote. It was composed for the violin, to be played entirely on the G string.

Johann Sebastian Bach — Fantasia in G major

The opening and closing passages of this great work lead to and from the climactic five-voice middle section. This central part of the composition is a tremendous declaration in dignified and stately chords, transposing into a number of keys and ending on a thrilling altered seventh chord. The resources of the organ are exploited in a manner so characteristic of Bach's genius.

Robert Schumann — Canon in B minor

Schumann wrote six studies for the pedal-piano in canon form. This bright and humorous canon is the fifth in the set, opus 56. The melody in the upper voice is imitated strictly at one measure's distance, an octave lower.

Franz Schubert — Andante from C major Symphony

No composer was as richly endowed with a genius for writing melody as was Schubert. His greatest compositions are, therefore, his songs. The theme of the Andante is a fine example of the charming and graceful rhythmic and melodic beauty of Schubert's music.

Paul Hindemith — Sonata III

1. "Oh Lord, to whom should I complain . . ." (Moderate)
2. "Awake, my treasure . . ." (Very slow)
3. "I bid her then . . ." (Quietly agitated)

Hindemith wrote this Third Sonata in 1940. It is built on a religious theme, the first movement closing with a chorale melody. The Sonata is extremely dissonant. The listener should, therefore, especially at first hearing, try to imbibe the atmosphere and mood which the composition portrays with great ingenuity.

Sigfrid Karg-Elert — Benediction (Op. 33, IVB)

The greatest composer in Germany since Max Reger was Karg-Elert. His best-known compositions are the sixty-six improvisations based on the Lutheran chorales. The Benediction is replete with tenderness and exquisite beauty.

Ch. Marie Widor — Allegro Vivace from Symphonie V

The Fifth Symphony is the most popular of the ten written by Widor, who, until his death two years ago, was organist of St. Sulpice, Paris. The first movement of the Symphony is a set of quietly brilliant variations, followed by a brief episode of dignified chords. A brilliant development concludes the movement.

The regular meeting of Friends will be held in the Social Room of the Divinity School Sunday evening, August 26, at 7:30 o'clock.

Oars labour'd heavily, Foam glimmer'd white.

Trembled the mariners, Peril was nigh; Then saith the God of God,

"Peace! It is I!" Ridge of the mountain wave, Lower thy crest.

Wail of Euroclydon, Be thou at rest; Sorrow can never be,

Darkness must fly, When saith the Light of Light, "Peace! It is I!"

Over life's sea; Thou, when the storm of Death Roars sweeping by,

Whisper, O Truth of Truth, "Peace! It is I!"

Offertory Solo—"Fear Not Ye, O Israel" Dudley Buck

Mrs. Walter J. Clouse

Behold, there shall be a day, when the watchman upon the mountain top shall cry aloud:

Arise ye, get ye up unto Mount Zion, unto the Lord your God.

For thus saith the Lord:

Fear not ye, O Israel, neither be thou still dismayed.

Refrain thine voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears;

For I the Lord am with thee, and will save thee.

I have loved thee with everlasting love, and have redeemed thee.

Why criest thou in thine affliction? Why mournest thou in nightly watches?

I have redeemed thee. Therefore thus saith the Lord:

Sing ye aloud with gladness, Thy mourning is turned to joy.

I, even I, have redeemed thee. Be glad and rejoice.

Thy sorrows now are ended, and great shall be thy peace.

Rejoice, be glad, and rejoice. Then fear ye not, O Israel,

Neither be thou still dismayed, I have redeemed thee.

Offertory Response by Choir and Congregation—"Doxology" (Old 100th) From the Genevan Psalter

Keep our lives free from sin, And our hearts pure within.

Jesus, Lord, hear our prayer: May we rest within Thy care. Amen.

Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but thee:
Yet possessing ev'ry blessing If our God our father be.
Saviour breathe forgiveness o'er us, All our weakness thou dost know.
Thou didst tread this earth before us, Thou didst feel its keenest woe.
Lone and dreary, faint and weary, Thro' the desert thou didst go.
Spirit of our God, Fill our hearts with heav'nly joy,
Love with ev'ry passion blending Pleasure that can never cloy:
Thus provided, pardon'd, guided, Nothing can our peace destroy.
Amen.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present an organ recital Sunday afternoon, October 7, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel.

Following is the program:

Sigfrid Karg-Elert Chorale Improvisations
All Comes by God's Great Blessing
Rejoice Greatly, O My Soul
Lord, All My Heart Is Fixed on Thee

Karg-Elert, a German composer of this century, was devoted to tone impressionism. His sixty-six chorale improvisations are among his most significant works. Note the inventiveness in the treatment of these, which are based on the Lutheran hymns.

Edward Elgar — Sonata op. 87, no. 2
Introduction
Toccata
Fugue
Coda

Elgar was born in England in 1857 and died in 1934. Truly a native composer, he was the first to bring England to the front rank in the field of orchestral music.
This sonata, a late work, is not written in strict form, yet its freedom of style is interesting and in good taste.

Hugh McAmis — Dreams

A hauntng melody, played pianissimo, is followed by a trumpet call which grows to full crescendo and then gives way to a return to the first theme, bringing one back to ethereal quietude.
Hugh McAmis, a gifted American composer, lost his life in World War II.

Jean Sibelius — The Swan of Tuonela

This tone poem is taken from a set of four hy the modern Finnish composer. In the Scandinavian mythology, Tuonela is the land of the dead. It is surrounded by a river of black water upon which a swan majestically moves and mournfully sings. The swan's voice is given to the English horn accompanied by strings. The music reaches a climax, then fades away in plaintive sighs.

Louis Vierne — Divertissement

A modern French flavor is given to this scherzo devoted to lightness and the use of soft solo stops. Vierne, who had been a pupil of Franck and Widor, was the blind organist of Notre Dame from 1900 until he died in 1937.

Louis Vierne — Carillon

The pedals give out the theme of the carillon in the chapel of the Chateau de Longpont at Aisne. The manuals toll bells in slow tempo with loud dissonant chords. The ringing of many bells produces a tremendous finale.

The next organ recital in the Duke University Chapel will be presented by Mrs. Hendrix on Sunday afternoon, November 4, at 4:00 o'clock.

CAMPUS SING

The Homecoming Campus Sing program Sunday evening, October 7, at 7:45 o'clock, in the Woman's College Auditorium, will be under the direction of Ann Smoot, '47, of Seaford, Del. The accompanist for the evening will be Virginia Kauble, '47, of St. Augustine, Fla.

O hearken Thou, O Lord, to the voice of my prayer, and hide not Thyself from my supplication.
For I will come, O Lord, into Thy holy temple, And there in fear will worship in Thy holy temple.
O lead me, Lord, in Thy mercy. Amen.

Hymn—Onward, Christian Soldiers (St. Gertrude) A. S. Sullivan

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Worship Geoffrey Shaw

O brother man! fold to thy heart thy brother; Where pity dwells, the peace of God is there;
To worship rightly is to love each other, Each smile a hymn, each kindly deed a prayer.
Follow with reverent steps the great example Of Him whose holy work was "doing good";
So shall the wide earth seem our Father's temple, Each loving life a psalm of gratitude.
Then shall all shackles fall; the stormy clangour Of wild war music o'er the earth shall cease;
Love shall tread out the baleful fire of anger, And in its ashes plant the tree of peace!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

And be gracious unto you. Amen.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital in the University Chapel Sunday afternoon, November 4, at 4:00 o'clock. Following is the program:

Johann Pachelbel Toccata in E Minor

Pachelbel was born in Nuremburg on Septemher 1, 1653, and died on March 3, 1706. His E Minor Toccata is one of the most brilliant in pre-Bach organ literature. It starts with a scintillating descending keyboard passage, which is followed by a quarter note melody accompanied by rushing thirty-seconds. After eight bars of development of a four-note motive, Pachelbel exploits an interesting figure which brings the work to a satisfying conclusion.

Johann Sebastian Bach Prelude and Fugue in D Major

Bach's chief works of the concert type belong to the nine years which he spent at Weimar. His fame as a player grew at this time when he made concert tours playing the D Major Prelude and Fugue and other show pieces written during this period.

The Prelude opens with a slow scale passage clearly defining the key in which it is written. After this dignified opening, Bach produces a gay figure written in simple sequence. The figure, which flows in contrapuntal style, hardly prepares one for the striking adagio at the close of the prelude. This adagio is an interlude of great depth of feeling and thoughtful use of dissonance. The double pedal and the daring harmony produce a poignancy which is the more effective since it is followed by a swiftly moving fugue.

Bach uses a short theme in this fugue. He must have been in a gay mood when he wrote it. Humor, dazzling style, and rapid footwork are Bach's demands upon the player.

Clarence Dickinson Reverie

Dickinson, who has often been called the father of American church music, has given many beautiful melodies to the church organist and choir singer.

Clarence Dickinson Scherzo

This whimsical movement is part of the Storm King Symphony. We quote from Dickinson's notes: "The Scherzo brings to mind the hobgoblins that are supposed to disport themselves in the Catskill Mountains at night, with elfish glee; there they also play at bowls even as they did long ago with Rip van Winkle, and the noise of their wild games is often heard in rolling thunder. One among them is a mighty monster; his giant footsteps are heard through the heavy pedal Bombarde."

Henry Mulet Tu Es Petra

Mulet was the organist at the church of Sacré Coeur in Paris for many years. He has written ten Byzantine sketches and this toccata, "Thou Art the Rock," is number ten of the series. It is modern music used in a dramatic and brilliant French style.

The next Organ Recital in the Duke University Chapel will be presented by Mrs. Hendrix on Sunday afternoon, December 2, at 4:00 o'clock.

CAMPUS SING

Jean Rockey will direct the Campus Sing to be held in the Woman's College Auditorium, Sunday evening, November 4, at 7:45 p.m. Talmadge Thomas will be the accompanist.

"RIGOLETTO"

The 1945-46 All-Star Concert Series will open on Monday night, November 5, at 8:00 o'clock with the performance of the opera, "Rigoletto," by the Charles L. Wagner Opera Company. Because the house is entirely sold out and because this is the first concert of the season, patrons are urged to arrive early.

Among the leading singers are the following artists:

Anthony Marlowe, from the Metropolitan Opera Co.

Jess Walters, from the New Opera Co.

Doris Marinelli, from the La Scala Opera Co., Italy.

John Gurney, from the Metropolitan Opera Co.

Mona Bradford, from the Chicago Opera Co.

William Hargrave, from the Metropolitan Opera Co.

There will be an orchestra of 30, conducted by Fritz Mahler, of the Juilliard School of Music. The stage director will be Desire Defrere, from the Metropolitan Opera Co. A chorus of young American singers and a group of ballet dancers will complete the cast.

DR. AND MRS. ERNEST R. GROVES TO CONDUCT FORUM

In peace, O may we understand The glorious Earth as one great land.
With Thee as Ruler, and, dear Lord, Eternal Truth the only sword! Amen.

'Tis heard in the rustling leaves on the green forest branches,
Seen in the fields rich with golden grain, In flowers the fairest, blushing at dawn.
'Tis seen where stars strew the blue vault of heaven. Fierce it sounds in the thunder's dread roll,
And flames in the lightning's swift and death-dealing flash.
Still clearer thy throbbing heart proclaims Jehovah's pow'r and might,
The Lord God Almighty. When to heav'n thou dost pray, Imploring grace and compassion.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital in the University Chapel Sunday afternoon, December 2, at 4:00 o'clock. Following is the program:

Music by JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH (1685-1750)

Chorale-Prelude — In Thee Is Gladness

The melody of the hymn,

In Thee is gladness
Amid all sadness
Jesu, sunshine of my heart

suggests the bright clarity of bells. Therefore, it is first heard on high flute stops. In developing this chorale, Bach uses a chaconne movement on a carillon theme repeated nineteen times in the pedals. Thus, the whole Prelude then suggests softly ringing bells, not only by means of registration, but also by the manual scale passages and constantly repeated melodic motif.

Pastorale — Andantino
Adagietto Cantabile

This work is seldom heard. The Andantino is lyrical and gayly flowing. The Adagietto is sad and plaintive. One can imagine a shepherd playing the lovely melody of the Adagietto as daylight ends.

Fantasia in G Major

The Fantasia opens with twenty-eight bars of bravura for the manual. It is followed by a five voice Grave which contains some fine polyphony. The mounting bass near the close of the Grave gives an early hint of a modern effect. The Fantasia ends with a long cadenza.

Air for the G String

Best known as a violin solo, this lovely melody is taken from Bach's Suite (No. 3) in D. Edwin H. Lemare has made this transcription for organ.

Chorale-Prelude — Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring

This beautiful chorale, so closely associated with the Christmas season, is from the Cantata No. 147. It is arranged for organ solo by E. Power Biggs.

Toccata and Fugue in D Minor

Like the Prelude and Fugue in D Major, this composition belongs to Bach's Weimar period. The Toccata opens in dazzling style and continues as brilliant program music throughout. The Fugue has an interesting theme, which enters quietly and becomes more exciting as it is developed. One admires the way in which Bach works back to the mood of the Toccata in the climax and closing bars.

The next Organ Recital in the Duke University Chapel will be presented by Mrs. Hendrix on Sunday afternoon, January 6, at 4:00 o'clock.

Good Christian men, rejoice With heart, and soul, and voice;
Give ye heed to what we say: News! Jesus Christ is born today:
Ox and ass before Him bow, And He is in the manger now.
God rest you merry, gentlemen, Let nothing you dismay,
Remember Christ our Saviour Was born on Christmas day,
To save us all from woe and sin, When we were gone astray.
O tidings of comfort and joy.
In Bethlehem, in Jewry, This blessed Babe was born,
And laid within a manger, Upon that holy morn;
The which His Mother, Mary, Did nothing take in scorn.
Good Christian men, rejoice With heart, and soul, and voicè;
Now ye hear of endless bliss: Joy! Jesus Christ was born for this!
He hath oped the heav'nly door, And man is blessed evermore.
Come, ye lofty, come ye lowly, Let your songs of gladness ring;
In a stable lies the Holy, In a manger rests the King:
See, in Mary's arms reposing, Christ by highest heav'n adored:
Come, your circle round Him closing, Pious hearts that love the Lord.
Come, ye poor, no pomp of station Robes the Child your hearts adore:
He, the Lord of all salvation, Shares your want, is weak and poor:
Oxen, round about behold them; Rafters naked, cold and bare,
See the shepherds, God has told them That the Prince of Life lies there.
Come, ye children, blithe and merry, This one Child your model make;
Christmas holly, leaf, and berry, All be prized for His dear sake;
Come, ye gentle hearts, and tender, Come, ye spirits, keen and bold;
All in all your homage render, Weak and mighty, young and old.
High above a star is shining. And the Wise men haste from far:
Come, glad hearts, and spirits pining: For you all has risen the star.
Let us bring our poor oblations, Thanks and love and faith and praise:
Come, ye people, come, ye nations, All in all draw nigh to gaze.
Born is the King of Israel.
Now to the Lord sing praises, All you within this place,
And with true love and brotherhood Each other now embrace;
This holy tide of Christmas All others doth deface.

Hymn—There's a Song in the Air! (Christmas Song) K. P. Harrington

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Star of Courage Jacques Wolfe
Soloist: Aldrich Northup, Tenor

Once on the hills of Galilee A star arose to guide the Three;
And they were wise Who followed far, The light of courage in a star!
For they were lost beside the sea That has its shores on Galilee,
And they were worn and they were chill, Who saw the heav'n with brightness fill!
And they were come from far to see The Child of God in Galilee,
They followed in the holy light That went before them flaming white!
As on the hills of Galilee A star once flamed to guide the Three,
They too are wise who follow far, With courage guiding like a star!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"The Hurt of Hypocrisy" Dr. Elbert Russell
Dean Emeritus of the Divinity School

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Hymn—Angels from the Realms of Glory (Regent Square) Henry Smart

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Star of Courage Jacques Wolfe
Soloist: William Kirkpatrick, Tenor

Once on the hills of Galilee A star arose to guide the Three;
And they were wise Who followed far. The light of courage in a star!
For they were lost beside the sea That has its shores on Galilee,
And they were worn and they were chill, Who saw the heav'n with brightness fill!
And they were come from far to see The Child of God in Galilee.
They followed in the holy light That went before them flaming white!
As on the hills of Galilee A star once flamed to guide the Three,
They too are wise who follow far, With courage guiding like a star!

Hymn—Hearken, All! What Holy Singing (Gloria) Old French Carol

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—The Shepherds' Story Clarence Dickinson
Soloists: William Kirkpatrick, Tenor; McLaurin Meredith, Basso; Mrs. A. E. Stanley, Soprano

Nowell! Sing we clear! Holpen are all folk on earth, Born is God's Son so dear.
To Bethlem did they go, The Shepherds three: To see whe'r it were so or no,
Whether Christ was born or no to set men free. Masters, in this hall,
Hear ye news today Brought over sea, And ever you I pray.
Then to Bethlem town did the Shepherds go, and in a sorry place Heard the oxen low.
Therein did they see a sweet and goodly May, Upon the straw she lay.
And a little child On her arm had she. "Wot ye who this is?" Said the hinds to me.
Ox and ass him know kneeling on their knee: Wondrous joy had I This little Babe to see.
Nowell! This is Christ the Lord, Masters, be ye glad! Christmas is come in,
And no folk should be sad.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"—And Dwelt Among Us" Dr. Liston Pope
Divinity School, Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you,
And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—The Heavens Are Telling Haydn

O God, beneath thy guiding hand Our exiled fathers crossed the sea;
And when they trod the wintry strand, With pray'r and song they worshipped Thee.
Thou heard'st well-pleased the song and prayer; Thy blessing came and still its pow'r
Shall onward through the ages bear The mem'ry of that holy hour.
Laws, Freedom, Truth and Faith in God Came with those exiles o'er the waves,
And where their pilgrim feet have trod The God they trusted guards their graves.
And here Thy name, O God, of Love, Thy children's children shall adore,
Till these eternal hills remove And Spring adorns the earth no more. Amen!

Hymn—Lead, Kindly Light (Lux Benigna) John B. Dykes

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—O Divine Redeemer Gounod-Custance
Soloist: Jon Crowe, Tenor

Ah! turn me not away Receive me, though unworthy,
Hear Thou my cry, behold Lord my distress Answer me from Thy throne
Haste Thee Lord to mine aid Thy pity show, in my deep anguish.
Let not the sword of vengeance smite me, tho' righteous Thine anger, O Lord;
Shield me in danger, O regard me, On Thee, Lord, alone will I call—
O Divine Redeemer, I pray Thee, grant me pardon, and remember not my sins.
Forgive me. Night gathers round my soul, Fearful I cry to Thee.
Come to mine aid O Lord Haste Thee, Lord, haste to help me.
Hear my cry Save me, Lord, in Thy mercy.
Save, in the day of retribution, from Death shield Thou me, O my God.
O Divine Redeemer, Have mercy, Help me my Savior.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital on Sunday afternoon, January 13, at 4 o'clock in the University Chapel. Following is the program:

Johann Sebastian Bach — Prelude in G Minor

The G Minor Prelude is seldom heard on the organ. It is more widely known as a transcription for piano by Alexander Siloti. Containing little melodic line, it begins pianissimo and works to a great crescendo in cadenza style, moving from great to small manual in echo effect as its volume increases.

John Stanley — Diapason Movement

Charles John Stanley was born in London in 1713. Two years after his birth he became blind by accident. Placed under the eminent Maurice Greene, Stanley lived to succeed as a composer and organist despite bis physical handicap. He died in 1786.

The Diapason Movement, Flute Solo and Courante in D were written during the same period by English Masters. They are similar in style, yet different in form, and might well he played together as three movements of an eighteenth-century sonata.

T. A. Arne — Flute Solo

Thomas Augustine Arne was horn in London, 1710, and died there in 1778. He was best known as a composer of opera. The Flute Solo is taken from a sonata.

Arne was the first to introduce female voices into oratorio choruses, which he did at Covent Garden in a performance of his oratorio, "Judith."

Maurice Greene — Courante in D (From "Choice Lessons")

Maurice Greene was born in London, 1696, and died there in 1755. Professor of Music at the University of Cambridge, he was organist at St. Paul's Cathedral and at the Chapel Royal.

The Courante is an old dance form.

César Franck — Pièce Héroïque

Franck's organ works, though few in number, rank as some of his greatest compositions. They largely consist of three groups: the "Six Pieces" (1862), "Three Pieces" (1878), of which the Pièce Héroïque is the best known, and "Three Chorales," his last work.

Alexander Russell — Song of the Basket Weaver

This is the third of a set of four St. Lawrence sketches. We quote from the composer's notes: "An old French-Canadian woman sits at the door of her cabin singing a song of long ago, while her deft fingers fashion a basket of river grasses." (Murray Bay, St. Lawrence River, 1916.)

Pietro Yon — Hymn of Glory

Pietro Yon was horn in Italy in 1886. In the early part of this century he became organist at St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York City, where he remained until his death in 1943. His influence as organist, composer and teacher has greatly enriched American music.

Tbe Hymn of Glory is dedicated to the American Legion.

Due to the appearance of the Pro Arte Quartette in East Duke Building on Sunday afternoon, February 3, the next Organ Recital by Mrs. Hendrix will be Sunday afternoon, February 10, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel.

MEETING OF FRIENDS

The regular meeting of Friends will be held in the Social Room of the Divinity School on Sunday evening, January 13, at 7:30 o'clock.

Tom Seahill will direct the Campus Sing, which will be under the sponsorship of the Commodore Club, on Sunday evening, January 13, at 7:45 p.m. in the Woman's College Auditorium.

MEETING OF GRADUATE COUNCIL

The Graduate Council will meet on Thursday, January 17, at 4:00 p.m. in Room 210, Divinity School.

O may this bounteous God, Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in His grace, And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills In this world and the next.
All glory be to God For all He hath created,
From us whom He so high Among His works enstated.

Until we there arrive Where song shall have no end.

EIGHTEENTH BIRTHDAY PARTY OF QUADRANGLE PICTURES, FEBRUARY 8 AND 9

Quadrangle Pictures announces its eighteenth birthday party for Friday and Saturday, February eighth and ninth.

Advance requests are now being accepted for the few seats which will be reserved for the birthday performances.

Although celebrating its eighteenth birthday, this will be Quadrangle's first party in five years. It was considered particularly appropriate, in view of a gradual "re-conversion" program, to have Johnny Long, his orchestra, and radio artists come down and help with the celebration. The Long group will appear for approximately an hour on Friday, February 8, at 8:00 p.m., and on Saturday, February 9, at 3:00 and 7:30 p.m.

In addition to the stage performances there will be a screen program beginning at about 6:00 o'clock on both evenings, and at about 1:15 on Saturday afternoon. The feature picture will be the delightfully refreshing musical fantasy "Where Do We Go from Here," all in technicolor, with Fred MacMurray, June Haver, and Joan Leslie. A Fox Pre-Release News, an RKO "Flicker Flashback," and a Walt Disney cartoon will complete the screen program. Complete performances begin at 3:00 for the Saturday matinee, and at 8:00 o'clock on Friday evening, and 7:30 o'clock on Saturday evening.

Regular admission for the majority of the seats in Page Auditorium will be: Matinee 40c, Evening 60c. A few seats will be reserved: Matinee 60c, Evening 85c. Reserved seats may be obtained at the Page Auditorium Box Office, Telephone F-131, Extension 481; Mailing Address, Box KM, Duke Station.

Flow'rs of Thy heart, O God are they: Let them not pass, like weeds, away.
Their heritage a sunless day. God save the people!
Shall crime bring crime forever, Strength aiding still the strong?
Is it Thy will, O Father, That man shall toil for wrong?
"No," say Thy mountains; "No," Thy skies;
Man's clouded sun shall brightly rise, And songs ascend, instead of sighs,
God save the people! Thine they are, Thy children as Thine angels fair;
From vice, oppression, and despair, God save the people!

For all who watch tonight, In sorrow, pain or care,
Oh Father, may they know that Thou Dost all their burden bear.
For all who weep tonight, The hearts that cannot rest,
Reveal Thy love, that wondrous love, Which gave for us Thy Best.
For all who wake tonight, Love's tender watch to keep,
Watcher divine, Thyself draw nigh, Thou who dost never sleep.
For all who fear tonight, What e'er the dread may be,
We ask for them the perfect peace Of hearts that rest in Thee.
Our own beloved tonight, O Father, keep, and where
Our love and succour cannot reach, Now bless them thro' our prayer.

The performances Friday and Saturday, February 8 and 9, feature Johnny Long, his orchestra, and radio artists, including Francey Lane, Tommy Morgan, Tex Mulcahy, and Don Paladino.

Long, class of '35, has sent down a program which promises to be varied in tempo and mood. Novelty numbers, featuring the Longfellows, Tex Mulcahy, and Don Paladino, give way to Francey Lane, popular girl vocalist, and Tommy Morgan, golden voiced baritone; all superimposed on a background of this fine orchestra. The affable leader, himself, steps into the limelight as violin soloist on several occasions. The fact that a childhood accident made it necessary for him to learn to play lefthanded in no way mars his splendid playing. Rather, it accentuates Long's positive determination to achieve as near perfection as possible in all of his endeavors.

Due to the unusual hours of the stage performances, the schedules for the Quadrangle's Eighteenth Birthday Party will be somewhat different from the usual Wednesday and Saturday schedules. To clarify this situation, the complete schedules follow:

While reserved seats on all shows to date have been very good, there will be about 3,500 rush seats available. The price scale for these performances is:

DR. HENRY SLOANE COFFIN TO DELIVER SERMON AT THE UNIVERSITY SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Dr. Henry Sloane Coffin, President Emeritus of Union Theological Seminary, New York City, will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship Sunday, February 10, at 11:00 a.m., in the University Chapel. His subject will be "The Tragic Element in Life."

The order of service follows:

DR. FRANK S. HICKMAN, Presiding Minister

Organ—Chorale-Prelude—"I Call to Thee, Lord Jesus Christ" — Bach
Grave from Fantasia — Bach

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer — Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud,
Sun of my soul, I cry aloud to Thee
For faith and strength to carry on.
Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.
The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day;
To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—When Morning Gilds the Skies (Laudes Domini) — Joseph Barnby

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Holy, Holy, Holy (Kedushah) — Max Spicker

Holy is the Lord of hosts. The heav'ns and the earth are full of his Glory.
The Lord is our strength, and our God our salvation, O praise His name in all the earth.
Thy name is praised and glorified in all the earth.
The Lord our God is one, the Lord our God is King. He is our Father.
He is our Helper, He is our Strength, our Salvation.
The Lord shall reign forever, thy God, O Zion, for evermore.
Hallelujah.

Hymn—Dear Lord and Father of Mankind (Rest) — Frederick C. Maker

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—O Lord God, Unto Whom Vengeance Belongeth — Robert Baker
Soloist: Miss Beatrice Donley, Contralto

O Lord God, unto whom vengeance belongeth: O God, show thyself.
Lift up thyself, thou Judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.
Lord, how long shall the wicked triumph? How long shall they utter and speak hard things?
They break in pieces thy people, They slay the widow and stranger:
And murder the fatherless. Yet they say, The Lord shall not see.
Man that is in honor and understandeth not is like the beasts that perish.
For when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.
The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments.
I will praise thee, O Lord, I will sing unto thee among the people.
Be thou exalted, O God; let thy glory be above all the earth.
I will praise thee, O Lord.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"The Tragic Element in Life"

Dr. Henry Sloane Coffin
President Emeritus, Union Theological Seminary, New York, N. Y.

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you,
And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Toccata on "O Filii et Filiae" Farnam

ORGAN RECITAL BY MILDRED L. HENDRIX

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital in the University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, February 10, at 4:00 o'clock. The program follows:

George Frederick Handel Prelude and Fugue in F Minor

The prelude, marked adagio, has dignity and depth of feeling. The subject of the fugue is simple yet majestic, and its development easily followed.

Handel was admired as a virtuoso on the organ. To display this virtuosity and probably to attract the public to his oratorios, he composed twenty concertos for organ as well as numerous other works.

Felix Mendelssohn Fifth Sonata
Andante; Andante con moto
Allegro Maestoso

This sonata, in two movements, opens with a chorale. It is followed by a section of brighter character, in which the staccato pedals form a contrast with the sustained keyboard passages. In the last movement, broad lines and lyrical passages give a pleasing finale to this work.

Mendelssohn wrote six sonatas for organ, which rank high in the organist's repertoire.

Johann Sebastian Bach Passacaglia in C Minor

Much has been written about the Passacaglia. Harvey Grace says, "The work is supposed to owe something to Buxtehude. Certainly a few passages recall Buxtehude's Chaconne in C Minor, but the size of his scheme and in variety and power Bach leaves the older composer so far behind as to be out of the reckoning."

The stately theme, first given out on the pedals, is used twenty times in the same key of C minor. Bach has reached the summit of inspiration in this composition.

Claude Debussy The Girl with the Flaxen Hair
Clair de Lune

The impressionistic qualities and the simplicity of these two well-loved compositions of Debussy make them especially adaptable to the tonal colorings of the organ.

Joseph Bonnet Romance Sans Parole

This whimsical piece, which is said to be a favorite of the composer, exemplifies the French spirit of gayety and lightness.

Charles Marie Widor Toccata from the Fifth Symphony

Widor wrote ten symphonies for organ. The Toccata from the fifth is probably the most familiar of all his works. A simple device of octaves used as melody in the pedals in a slowly descending scale passage, against a rapid staccato on the manuals, makes an effective and brilliant finale.

The next recital in the Duke University Chapel will be on Sunday afternoon, March 3, at 4:00 o'clock. Mrs. Hendrix will be assisted by Robert Hull, violin; Julia Mueller, viola; and Allan Bone, clarinet.

MEETING OF FRIENDS

The regular meeting of Friends will be held in the Social Room of the Divinity School on Sunday evening, February 10, at 7:30.

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—O God, Beneath Thy Guiding Hand A. Loftin

O God, beneath thy guiding hand Our exiled fathers crossed the sea;
And when they trod the wintry strand, With pray'r and song they worshipped Thee.
Thou heard'st well-pleased the song and prayer; Thy blessing came and still it's pow'r
Shall onward through the ages bear The mem'ry of that holy hour.
Laws, Freedom, Truth and Faith in God Came with those exiles o'er the waves,
And where their pilgrim feet have trod The God they trusted guards their graves.
And here Thy name, O God, of Love, Thy children's children shall adore,
Till these eternal hills remove And Spring adorns the earth no more,
Thy children's children shall adore Till Spring adorns the earth no more! Amen.

Hymn—Faith of Our Fathers (St. Catherine) F. W. Faber

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Peace I Leave with You J. Varley Roberts
Soloist: William Kirkpatrick, Tenor

Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you:
Not as the world giveth, give I unto you.
Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
Because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.
But be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own

All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Offertory Anthem—Brother James' Air (Marosa) Arr. Jacob

Like St. Francis, he combined the spiritual genius of the Mystic with the irresistible charm and trust of the child who loves all men and all creatures.

This Air is perhaps the most beautiful of many that came to him spontaneously, and it has, in its simplicity, something of that rare quality of appeal that Maurice Baring describes thus: "It was a wonderful tune—a tune that opened its arms.")

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital of Easter music on Sunday afternoon, April 7, at 4:00 o'clock.

The program follows:

Johann Sebastian Bach

Chorale—Preludes
(a) In Death's Strong Grasp the Saviour Lay
(b) I Call to Thee, Lord Jesus Christ
(c) O Sacred Head Surrounded
(d) Come Sweet Death

(a) This is an Easter chorale typifying the Resurrection of the Lord. It is found in the Orgelbüchlein which Bach planned for the church year.

(b) Bach designated this chorale to the section devoted to Christian life in the liturgical year. It is a beautiful trio with flowing middle voice, soaring soprano, and simple bass progressions.

(c) Bach used this lovely chorale in various keys and with stirring texts throughout his great Easter work, The Passion of Our Lord According to St. Matthew.

(d) This arrangement of Virgil Fox is from a hymn melody which begins,

"Come Sweet Death! Calm of the Soul!
Lead me to peace!"

Richard Wagner (a) Prelude to Parsifal
(b) Pilgrims Chorus from Tannhäuser
(c) Prelude to Lohengrin

(a) We hear first the motif of the Last Supper. This fades away, then is repeated. The Grail motif follows. It is the main theme of Wagner's religious Opera, Parsifal, and was originally the old Dresden Amen. The motif of Faith now is introduced in loud tones by the brasses. The Prelude ends quietly on the original theme.

(b) The Pilgrims sing this chorus as Tannhäuser joins them on their way to Rome where they seek forgiveness of their sins.

(c) The Prelude is based entirely on one theme, the sanctity of the Grail, of which Lohengrin is one of the knights. It is introduced on high tremulous strings and is developed into a superh crescendo, dying away again to the ethereal harmonies with which it opened.

Lynnwood Farnam Toccata on "Filii et Filiae"

The composer has developed a brilliant toccata on an old Easter chorale, which is heard in the hass. Mr. Farnam died in New York in 1930.

And thou, O Mary, most pure mother of God,
Rejoice in the resurrection of thy Son.
Praise our Redeemer, our Lord, A-men.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital in the University Chapel Sunday afternoon, May 5, at 4:00 o'clock. Following is the program:

Gabriel Pierné In the Cathedral

Gabriel Pierné followed César Franck as organist of the church of St. Clotilde, Paris. In the Cathedral is arranged by Clarence Dickinson.

Eric Delamarter Carillon

This charming piece depicts the ringing of small bells with soft chimes interspersed.

Delamarter was born at Lansing, Michigan, in 1880. He was a pupil of Guilmant and Widor in Paris. He was associate conductor of the Chicago Symphony from 1917-1936.

Johann Sebastian Bach Toccata, Adagio, and Fugue in C Major

The toccata begins with an ornate flow of running passages on the manual leading to one of the finest pedal solos ever written. The two principal motives of the main subject are introduced in the pedals and are continued throughout the toccata. A beautiful adagio, in A minor, follows the first movement. It closes with a recitative of eight bars closely resembling Buxtehude's style. The fugue, in 6-8 time, is light and rather gay.

Robert Schumann Sketch in C Major

Schumann wrote four Sketches for pedal pianoforte or small organ. This bright work in C Major is effective on a large organ where the first theme opens with trumpet calls.

Joseph Clokey Mountain Sketches
I Jagged Peaks in the Starlight
II Wind in the Pine Trees
III Canyon Walls

Joseph Clokey was born in New Albany, Indiana, April 28, 1890. He was a pupil of Edgar Stillman Kelley and a gradnate of tho Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. His compositions include seven cantatas, four operas, organ suites, and church music.

Clarence Dickinson
Scherzo from "Storm King Mountain" Symphony

"The Scherzo brings to mind the hobgoblins which disport themselves in the mountains with elfish glee. One among them is a mighty monster; his giant footsteps are heard in the pompous notes of the pedal bombarde."—Dickinson.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will give a recital in the University Chapel Sunday afternoon, June 2, at 4:30 o'clock.

The program follows:

George Frederic Handel — Suite from "Water Music"
Allegro Vivace
Air
Horupipe
Allegro Maestoso with Trumpets and Horns

This suite was taken from music allegedly composed for an aquatic fête given by the Elector of Hanover in 1712. Handel had lost favor with the Elector prior to this composition. It not only restored him to favor but was such a great success that it brought him an annuity of two hundred pounds. This organ arrangement is by Carl McKinley.

William Byrd — A Gigg

Lynwood Farnam arranged this early dance which is taken from the Fitzwilliam Virginal Book. Byrd's influence upon instrumental music is important. He was the first great composer to turn his talents towards a keyboard instrument. Up to this time (1590) the emphasis had been placed entirely upon vocal music.

César Franck — Prelude, Fugue and Variation

The haunting phrases of the prelude are typical of Franck's melodic gifts. Following this movement there is an interlude of one line which resembles Bach's bridges between sections. The fugue is dignified and well defined, with a hint of the original theme used in inversion. The work ends with a lovely variation of the opening melody.

Joseph Jongen — Marche Religieuse

Joseph Jongen, born in 1873, is a Belgian organist and composer. He was director of the Brussels Conservatory and professor of counterpoint and fugue.

Robert Elmore — Night Song

The composer is a gifted young American organist who studied with Pietro Yon. He is a native of Philadelphia and is now a member of the Department of Music at the University of Pennsylvania.

Charles Marie Widor
Toccata from the "Fifth Organ Symphouy"

The word toccata, from the Italian toccare, "to touch," is significant to all organists. For centuries they have found the toccata form of touching the keys in rapid passages, usually with heavy pedals carrying the sustained melodies, an effective method of displaying their instrument to best advantage. This toccata by the famous French organist is one of the brilliant display pieces for the organ.

The next Organ Recital in the Duke University Chapel will be on Sunday afternoon, July 7, at 4:30 o'clock. George M. Thompson, head of the Organ Department at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, N. C., will be guest organist.
